MAY 2026 EVENTS

CALENDAR & JOURNAL

MONDAY, MAY 4

Coastal Verse: Poetry at Pascal Hall, 6 – 7:30 PM

86 Pascal Ave, Rockport, ME

(1st Monday of the Month) We pass the hat for the Featured Poet: Richard Cambridge, Poet/Activist and the Curator of Poets' Theater at Club Passim, Cambridge, MA. For his complete and extensive biography, visit www.richardcambridge.org/about. The Spotlight Feature will be Megan Berman, who is a member of the Rockport Poets Corner and lives in Rockport. Megan appreciates the inspiration afforded by living on the Maine coast. An open Mic follows; free and open to all.

FRIDAY, MAY 15

Midcoast Poetry Journal Publication Celebration, Volume 3, 6– 8 PM

Jackson Memorial Library, 71 Main St., St. George.

Come celebrate with poets published in the Midcoast Poetry Journal's 3rd volume. Copies will be available for purchase. Workshop Offering: Len Germinara of the MP-C&J will offer a bookbinding demo, from 3–5 PM, a simple DIY process that will have you creating handmade, “perfect bound” paper back books. An open Mic follows; free and open to all.

THURSDAY, MAY 21

Midcoast Poetry Journal Celebrates Volume 3, 6– 7:30 PM

Rockland Public Library, 80 Union St., Rockland. Come join in with the poets published in the Midcoast Poetry Journal, Volume 3. An open Mic follows; free and open to all.

SATURDAY, MAY 30

Come As You Are – A Midcoast Gathering of Voices, 2-4 PM

Porter Hall, Skidompha Public Library, 184 Main St, Damariscotta.

Sponsored by The Midcoast Poetry Calendar and Journal. All voices are welcome. Bring a poem of your own or one of your favorites from a poet you admire.
